

6 November 1951

The Honorable W. Averill Harriman
Director for Mutual Security
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Harriman:

I am in receipt of your letter of November 1, relating to the formation of a Mutual Trade Security Advisory Committee to assist you in regard to your duties under Public Law 213.

I believe that Dr. Max F. Milliken, Assistant Director for Research and Reports, is best qualified to provide you with the assistance which you desire and I have, therefore, designated him as the Central Intelligence Agency representative on your Committee.

Sincerely,

Walter B. Smith
Director
